FRIDAY EVENING MAY 16, 1902

Drugstore Humor.

A Philadelphia druggist has made the following collection of amusing misadventures that have been sent to him from time to time:

"I have a cute pain in my baby's stomach. Please give me something to cure it."

"My little girl has cut up a lot of buttons. Please send a nemetic by the enclosed box."

"Dear doctor a dog bit my child on the leg please send some cork plaster and cutter eyes."

"Please send by bearer one postal card. Also kindly give bearer, my son, some licorice root."

"Dear doctor word is good for tireless fever send some quick I got it."

"Let my Johnny have a glass of sody water. I wud come myself but I am washing. P. S. the 5 cents is for the sody water."

"If you can fill the enclosed prescription for 25 cents do so. If not return by bearer."

Ants That Strike.

Certain kinds of black ants have little yellow ants which do most of their work for them. Once in awhile these little yellow fellows will go on strike, and the "blacks" try to force them back to work by cutting off their food supply. If that does not succeed, they will attack the strikers in force or make a raid and get another gang of "yellows" into the colony. But the newcomers, as a rule, join the strikers. The strike ends by the "yellows" escaping and founding a colony for themselves, or they give in and settle down to work again.

Safeguarding Himself.

"Are you a detective?" asked Mr. Meekton.

"I am," answered the man with the turndown collar and the white necktie.

"Well, I want to employ you. I want you to get out your false whiskers and your dark lantern and dog my foot-prints night and day. Henrietta's gone out of town to visit some relatives, and I don't want her to be obliged to take my word for anything."—Washington Star.

An Improved Neighborhood.

Mrs. Uppish—Just think! It's only six months ago since we moved away from next door to you. We're in a much better neighborhood now.

Mrs. Sharpe—So are we.

Mrs. Uppish—Why, where did you move?

Mrs. Sharpe—Oh, we haven't moved at all.—Philadelphia Press.

Had Her Revenge.

"He told his wife she ought to take cooking lessons."

"Did she?"

"Well, yes. She sent for her mother to come and give her a three months' course."—Philadelphia Bulletin.

An Unkind Retort.

"You made a fool of me!" exclaimed the angry husband.

"Call yourself a fool if you wish, my dear," calmly rejoined his wife, "but remember you have always claimed to be a self-made man."

Our days are comparatively few, and we live through each day only once. Therefore it behooves us to make each day worth while.—Ladies' Home Journal.

Sciatic Rheumatism Cured after

Fourteen Years of Suffering.

"I have been afflicted with sciatic rheumatism for fourteen years," says John Edgar, of Germantown, Cal. "I was able to be around but constantly suffered. I tried everything I could hear of and at last was told to try Chamberlain's Pain Balm, which I did and was immediately relieved and in a short time cured, and I am happy to say it has not since returned." Why not use this liniment and get well? It is for sale by Richard Gibson, Druggist.

Like a Lightning Man.

"Five years ago a disease the doctors called dyspepsia took such hold of me that I could scarcely go," writes Geo. S. Marsh, well-known attorney of Houston, Tex. "I took quantities of pills and other medicines but nothing helped me. As a drowning man grasps at a straw I grabbed at Kodol. I felt an improvement at once and after a few bottles am sound and well." Kodol is the only preparation which exactly reproduces the natural digestive juices and consequently is the only one which digests any good food and cures any form of stomach trouble. For sale by E. S. Leadbeater & Sons.

MEDICINAL.

More Harmful Than Alcohol

Overeating Worst Form of Intemperance.

If your food is undigested, you are underfed, no matter how much you eat. And the underfed man is, to the extent of the underfeeding, crippled for the battle of life. On the other hand, there is such a thing as overeating. The harm done by indigestion caused by overloading the stomach exceeds that from the increased heart beats caused by the use of alcohol or whiskey.

Eat as much good food as you need but don't overload the stomach. If your stomach is weak it may refuse to digest what you eat. Then you ought to use a good digestant like Kodol Dyspepsia Cure, which digests what you eat without the stomach's aid. This rest and the wholesome tonics contained in Kodol Dyspepsia Cure soon restore health. You don't have to diet. Don't eat too much. That's harmful. But eat enough and of sufficient variety. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure will digest it. It quickly relieves the sensation of fullness and bloating from which some people suffer after meals. It prevents belching and absolutely cures indigestion and other stomach troubles. Equally good for children.

Lemuel James, Marysville, O., says: "I suffered from dyspepsia for thirty years but a few bottles of Kodol Dyspepsia Cure completely cured me and I heartily recommend it to all sufferers from this disease."
